THE COLOR LINE.

The frightfully important question of the social standing of the octoroon wife of Senator Bruce, has been decided in Washington, the wives of the dry high officials have called upon her. Mrs. Bruce is said to be beautiful, educated and a lady. She is certainly the wife of a gentleman although he is a mulatto. Senator Bruce is a fine looking man, with an assured, though modest, manner, and can hold his own with any of his brother senators. The conduct of the ladies of Washington is in pleasant contrast with that of Senator Sharon, who snebbishly declined to invite Bruce to his Palace hotel banquet when the gentleman was in San Francisco about a year and a half ago and was stopping at Sharon's hotel, after having crossed the continent with him. We are glad that the undemocratic social barrier against educated persons who may have negro blood in their veins, has been broken through. It is monstrous that an accident of birth should fence a man off from those who are in no other respect his superiors. As Jash Billings has wisely observed, "gentlemen are the same all the world over. It's only the roughs that differ," and surely one can be a gentleman in spite of the fact that his grandmother was the slave of his grandfather. As the Democrats are mainly responsible for mulattoes and other varieties of mixed human goods, they can't in reason object to their existence, and as some mulattoes, quadroons and octoroons, have of late years developed a remarkable capacity for raising themselves in the world, the question of their social standing is one which they will constantly force. That the end will be a triumph of justice and common-sense, we have no doubt.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

It is probable before the close of the present session of the legislature the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society will make a tender of its property to the state. The property consists of a good race track, grand stand, extensive fair grounds and a handsome two story pavilion. The fair of last year paid expenses, so that the institution is now self-sustaining. All that will be asked of the state in return will be the payment of the debts of the Society, whose property is worth in the neighborhood of $20,000. There is not a state in the Union which does not aid in the support of an annual fair. California, we believe, gives an annual appropriation of $15,000. We believe that under state control the annual fair would soon become a source of income to Nevada. The citizens of Washoe county, and others interested, have by their private enterprise built up the institution to its present proportions and have also built the pavilion, which is an ornament to the town and a monument to its generosity. Of course Reno derives advantages from the holding of the state fair here. Her successful exertions to make it the most desirable place in the state for the purpose have shown that. The offer which will be made to the state will be a generous one and cannot well be refused.

A SCHOOL OF MINES.

The Elko Independent in reference to the state University (so-called), points out that it is merely a preparatory department kept alive for the purpose of securing the government land grant, and adds:
"It being a fact then that in order to retain the land grant it is necessary to maintain a state educational institution, and the idea being very generally entertained that the state ought to have a school of mines, it would certainly be the best and most economical plan to organize the school of mines in connection with the University, and in fact the act of congress donating the land specially provides that a school of mines shall be a part of the state institution."
The school of mines should be the principal feature of any state educational institution in Nevada, and the proper place for the establishment of a school of mines is Virginia City. We have no desire to rob Elko of any of her sources of revenue, but it must be apparent that the school of mines should be where the mines are.
It is very gratifying to know that the Chinese question is awakening of social and journalistic interest in the East, and that a rational view of the matter is being taken.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A number of Eureka merchants have sent a circular to the merchants of Reno and, no doubt, other parts of the state, asking for their signatures to a petition to the legislature to offset one which, they assert, California merchants will present asking for the repeal of the so-called "drummer license" law, and also to amend our attachment law in such a way as to place foreign creditors on an equal footing with creditors in our state. Concerning the attachment law, we do not believe that the legislature can be induced by all the merchants in California to alter it. At present it is the same as that of California and gives home creditors the preference. If California merchants object to the law as it stands let them set the example by getting their legislature to repeal it. It will then be time enough for them to ask Nevada to do the same. As for the drummer license, that is a matter upon which there is a good deal to say upon both sides. Drummers spend a good deal of money and in that way are profitable visitors. The two things should not be coupled in the petition. The first is of great importance the latter of little.

Princess Caroline, wife of Prince Henry of Hesse, died yesterday, and now the owls of the human family will announce again, as a new and startling discovery, that the great as well as the humble must die. They can't get over the facts, however, that the humble don't have half as good a time and do most of the dying.

It is to be hoped that after the legislature adjourns the State will have something to show for all that money in the treasury. A building within the prison walls outside this town, and an insane asylum here or somewhere else would satisfy the people. We don't want to see that money given away or stolen.

The Eureka Sentinel continues its cowardly war upon Alf. Chartz. The Sentinel's opposition to the pardon of the unfortunate young man will do him no harm.

Conscious of Insanity.

[Sacramento Record-Union.]
A correspondent writes as follows from Latrobe under date of the 2d instant: Yesterday morning this neighborhood was shocked by the announcement that William Pfeiffer, an old resident of this place, had committed suicide. The facts are substantially as follows: Mr. Pfeiffer borrowed a double barreled shot-gun of F. Krauss, saying that he wished to go hunting. He then went to the house of Mrs. Crist, about one mile north of Latrobe. Declining to go into the house when invited to do so by Mrs. Crist, he sat down on the porch and began arranging a string to his gun. Mrs. Crist suspecting that something was wrong from his manner, endeavored to divert his attention by inquiring about his family, etc., but did not succeed. After trying the string to the gun, he exclaimed: "Lord, have mercy," and placed the muzzle in his mouth and discharged the gun. Mrs. C. and her little children came to town immediately and related the circumstances. Several gentlemen repaired to the scene and found Mr. Pfeiffer dead. Adverse circumstances seem to have impelled him to take his life. He leaves a wife and five children. In his pocket were found two papers, one to his wife, as follows: "Dear wife and children—I leave you to a hard world, but I cannot help it. I am insane and not able to do anything for you. I hope you will forgive me, as I love you all dearly. W. Pfeiffer." The other, to the citizens of Latrobe, was as follows: "To the citizens of Latrobe—I am insane and therefore cannot live. I hope you will all forgive me and help my poor family. O God, forgive me, and I forgive all. W. Pfeiffer."

A Novel Marriage.

The Pioche Record relates the following novel mode of marriage ceremony: "Bruno Pat," finding that he could not get married in Pioche, secured the services of a Mormon bishop, by the name of Allen, who lives down in the valley, and proceeded to the Utah line, some five miles distant. On arriving at the line the good bishop proceeded to business and married the couple. When the marriage ceremony was being performed Pat stood on the east side of the line, in the territory of Utah, and the charming and blushing bride on the west side, in the state of Nevada, while Bishop Allen straddled the line, standing on both Utah and Nevada soil, and in this position the young couple were united. This is probably the first couple ever united in the holy bonds of matrimony with the green standing in a territory and the bride in a state, while the old fellow who tied the knot stood in both.

Mining Matters in Peru—A Monster Mill.

New York, January 7th.—We have Lima advices to the 15th of December. Active preparations were making to transport an eighty-stamp mill built in California to Cerro de Pasco. It is estimated that it will make 12,000 pack mule loads, and the transportation will cost 30,000 soles. The mining mechanics who accompanied the machinery from San Francisco predict a brilliant success from the operation of the mill. Charles Watson has been succeeded by Alexander R. Robertson as director in charge of the company. Robertson is a son-in-law of the late Henry Meigs.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Resolutions on the Railroad Question—Governor Kinkadee's Inaugural.

CARSON, Nev., Jan. 7.—In the senate today Mr. Cassidy introduced a concurrent resolution demanding that Senators Jones and Sharon vote for the bill now pending before the United States senate to prevent discrimination by railroads. Adopted unanimously. Mr. Boardman introduced a concurrent resolution instructing Senators Jones and Sharon to vote for the Reagan bill, now before the United States senate, and also any measure looking to reduce fares and freights on interstate railroads. Cassidy introduced a bill to reduce the rate of state taxation from 90 to 50 cents. Stewart gave notice of an act to regulate the location of mines. Boardman introduced a bill to create the legislative fund and regulate the pay of legislatures and attaches. Governor Kinkadee, in his inaugural address, says that the mining interests should be encouraged and fostered and they should contribute a just proportion of the public revenue. He will counsel and favor economy, and asks a reduction of the tax levy, so that there will be no accumulation of money; recommends that no discrimination be made in taxation value; that railroads pay a tax on their actual value in cash.

Governor Bradley's final message was presented. He recommends that the matter of collection of the delinquent penalty of the mining tax be left to the courts; the completion of the state prison at Carson, making the present one at Carson an asylum, which will include the purchase of the hotel at Warm Springs, and refers to the right of the state legislature to regulate fares and freights on the railroad. An appropriation of $4000 for the fish commissioner is recommended. The business transacted by the assembly was unimportant.

A Cowardly Murder.

[Mariposa Gazette, Jan. 4.]
On Wednesday last in the vicinity of Indian Gulch, about six miles from Horroitz, a terrible homicide was committed by one Henry Ivy striking John S. Royal in the head with the handle of a pick, containing the eye of the broken pick only, and killing him almost instantly. The difficulty was about a mining claim which J. H. Malone had purchased last year at tax sale, and held a sheriff's deed of. It appears the deceased was availing himself of the mining law requiring a certain amount of annual expenditure upon mining claims, and had joined the claim; and the claimant Malone, in company with Ivy, came up to the mine and presented to Royal a paper purporting to be some evidence of authority by which Malone held his claim. While Royal was reading this paper, Ivy picked up from behind, and unobserved by Royal, the deadly weapon and struck the fatal blow which caused his death. Ivy was in the employ of Malone. Ivy gave himself up, and Malone was arrested for complicity.

An Able Defense.

The canvass between the two candidates was a very active one, when suddenly one of the electors stepped forward and pointing to one of the honorable gentlemen, exclaimed, "Fellow-citizens, the Honorable Mr. Cato Pita has been boasting of his purity and declaring that he had nothing in common with tyrants and corruptionists, and yet I am in a position to prove that only two short years ago this paragon of virtue accepted a bribe from the corrupt minions of arbitrary power." (Immense sensation.) The Hon. Mr. Cato Pitt, on rising, was greeted with yells and brickbats, and spoke substantially as follows: "Gentlemen, I admit that I took the money, but, fellow-citizens, I put it in my pocket did nothing to advance the odious cause of tyranny, and thus punished condignly the corruptionists who sought with bribes to detach the friend of the people's cause." (Frantic applause.)

Myriads of Wild Geese.

Between Chualar and Gonzalez, says the Monterey Democrat, myriads of wild geese may be seen every day, feeding upon the grain which is spread profusely over the ground in the stubble-fields. Encamped, as they know, however, they have posted around them wary old ganders as sentinels, and a hunter needs to exercise great strategy to get even within gunshot. They seem to have favorite spots to resort to, and as at certain times they wing their way to the river for water, if one would take the trouble to dig a pit within the feeding ground, in which to conceal himself, he would have frequent chances of "pot shots" and might kill numbers. As a snow plow and five engines on the New York Central Railroad was trying to force their way through the snow drifts yesterday the plow and four of the locomotives left the track four miles east of Albany. Two of the locomotives exploded, killing three employees. Three of four other persons are missing. Medical assistance has been sent from Albany. It is not yet known how great is the loss of life.

JOTTINGS.

The thermometer marked 14 degrees above zero this morning at 7 o'clock.
—There are messages at the Western Union office for Ira B. Ashbrook and Mrs. W. E. Hand.
—Mr. Welch, who was severely hurt by a runaway accident on the Geiger grade last Saturday, lies in a critical condition.
—The weather continues cold. To-day it made a feeble attempt to snow, but there were not clouds enough and the sun had serious objections.
—There was a pleasant juvenile party at the residence of B. F. Leele last evening. Over a hundred of the young friends of Mack Leele were present.
—The first of a series of Masonic socials takes place at Masonic hall on Friday evening next. Masons and their families and lady friends will be the favored guests. None others will have the privilege of attending.

The Seminary.

The Easter term for the School for Girls opens to-morrow morning at half past 9 o'clock. The new principal is to be Miss Henrietta Fellows, instead of Mrs. Philbrick, as was announced at the close of the last term. Mrs. Philbrick has been seriously ill for the last three weeks, and her illness has been of such a character that she will be obliged to give up her engagement which she had made to be here at the opening of this term. Miss Fellows, who comes to take her place, is a lady of high attainments and large experience in teaching, and is well qualified in all respects for the position of principal. She will not arrive until some time next week, but until she comes Bishop Whitaker will take full charge of the school and give instruction to the various classes. The prospect is that the school will be as full as usual.

Amusements.

Josh Hart and his dramatic company will appear at the Academy of Music on the evening of the 24th. The Rents Female Minstrels will appear on the 27th. It is possible that the Froliques, who made such a hit on Monday evening last, may step over at Reno on their return from Virginia and give a performance on Sunday evening.

A NOBLE CHARITY

Subscriptions Wanted for the Support of Dennis Kearney.

A letter dated San Francisco January 6th, with this advertisement pasted on the corner of the sheet, reached the GAZETTE office this morning:

THE KEARNEY TESTIMONIAL FUND.
All members of the Workingmen's party and others, admirers of DENNIS KEARNEY, in this city and up country, who cannot attend the said lot meetings, and who wish to contribute one dollar and upwards to the above fund, will please send the same, or send it to H. M. Moore, secretary W. P. C. 807 Market street. Full name or initials must accompany the cash, which will be published in the "Weekly Open Letter."
J. J. SMITH, Financial Sec.

The letter is addressed to the well-known Communist who edits this metropolitan journal and runs as follows:

DEAR SIR:—By the above advertisement clipped from one of our daily newspapers, you will perceive that we are getting up a grand testimonial fund for the great agitator, or rather his family. Knowing you to be in accord with the Workingmen's movement, and friendly to Kearney, and being a prominent man in your community, I would ask you to take upon yourself the collection of a sum of money for the above purpose. I would sooner see all the honest, poor, Workingmen show their admiration for Kearney by subscribing one dollar each, than that any wealthy persons should contribute at all, although we have several large subscribers among them already. Hoping to hear favorable news from you soon I remain Yours, very respectfully,
CHAS. J. J. SMITH.

This is just the kind of a job the editor of the GAZETTE has been hungering for. For several months past he has half starved his own family in order to increase the comfort of that of the great agitator. It is a noble cause. God forbid that the mighty Dennis should ever again be compelled to do a stroke of honest work. The editor of the GAZETTE urges every Workingman in Washoe county to bring all his savings to this office. Don't send a cent to Dennis directly, but bring your wealth here. The editor will see to it that the coin shall be placed where it will do the most good. In the meantime to hell with hard work an' hurroo for Dennis an' a big subscription.

An Ill-Natured Philosopher.

Here are some statements which have been handed to the GAZETTE by an ill-conditioned person who says that he knows them to be true:

A good suit of clothes is better than an endorsement of a bishop.

Things that you don't want you can always get. Want them and you want. This is on the beautifully just principle that to him that has plenty more will be given.

Money is the most respectable thing in the world. Let a vicious, uneducated scoundrel have plenty of it and he will be treated with deference.

Cheek is better than ability, profession better than performance. Look around you and see.

Let a man insist that he is clever and people will help him to spread the lie.

People are like a row of bricks set up on end. Push over the first and it will knock down the next. They won't help one another to get up again.

Don't say anything complimentary of a clergyman. You will be thought an infidel if you do.

Don't trust the man or newspaper that fawns upon everybody. Either will kick you if you are down.

The man who brags publicly of his love for his wife is generally a bad husband.

Those who are always thinking of their health lose it.

The man or woman who doesn't like to listen to gossip hasn't been born.

It is always pleasant to hear of a rascal being thrashed. The fist is the natural avenger.

The man who doesn't mind his own business and interferes with that of others will find everybody meddling with him. In the end he won't have any business to mind.

Don't write for the newspapers under the belief that you won't be found out. Every ass has some peculiarity about his ears.

No More Free Wood.

Mr. Hurd says that he is considerably annoyed by small boys and girls raiding upon the Central Pacific company's wood-pile. The children come with baskets, presumably for bark, but nail a stick of wood at every opportunity. Mr. Hurd supposes them to be the offspring of poor people and he doesn't want to do them any damage, but the company uses the bark as well as the wood, and it is his duty to protect it from all marauders big or little. He therefore gives warning that he will cause the arrest and prosecution of anyone who hereafter unlawfully levies upon that wood-pile.

Fish Planting.

Governor Bradley, in his final message to the senate, recommends an appropriation of $4000 for the fish commissioner, whom he claims has carried out the wishes of the last legislature faithfully. Washoe lake has been stocked with Sobuykill catfish, and an excellent salmon perch. The same kind of catfish has been planted in the Humboldt and Carson rivers, and a hatchery has been established and 300,000 salmon been hatched, which will soon be placed in the Walker and Truckee rivers.

Dissolved Partnership.

Notice is given elsewhere of the dissolution of copartnership heretofore existing under the name of C. A. Bragg & Co. The business will be continued by C. A. Bragg, who will continue to supply builders and others with lumber and wood of all kinds, doors, windows, sash, etc., at the lowest market prices.

DEATH OF AN ASSEMBLYMAN.

L. W. Walsh assemblyman from Lincoln county, died last night of consumption. He will be buried at 1 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Abellier on Journalism.

"Newspapers! Fought!" cried old Mr. Abellier last evening when the saloon took up the subject. "Don't talk to me about 'em," he continued, emptying his glass quite indignantly. "They're a curse to the country, that's what they are. They're allus pokin' their noses into what don't concern 'em and stirrin' up rows continual. Let me an' any o' you get into a row, say, and we go to punchin' each other's heads. What does the newspapers do? Writes us up an' tells all about it. Nice readin' that fur children, ain't it? Suppose one o' you feller runs off with my wife, say." [Here a light of inward joy lit up the countenance of the good old man.] "What'll the newspapers do? Write it up, every word o' it. That's pretty readin' fur our young uns, too. My opinion is that nothin' should be printed what'll let a child know o' the bad gins on in the world. I plead," said the old gentleman, waxing oratorical, "for a prouder an' better journalism; one that'll strive to lift up the whole human family, includin' me, to a nobler position in the world, an' that'll cast out the vulgar an' build up a universal love for the pure, the good an' the beautiful. Hm! Barking, stir yer pegs, an' fetch us some more tush. It don't do no good to tell me," pursued Mr. Abellier, "that the newspapers has got to give the news. They had ought to imitate the ostrich an' when they hides their heads an' don't see nothin' there nethin' don't happen. When I get a newspaper I'll show you how to run one. Any feller that's made a mis-cue at anythin' else kin do that. I'll just say:

Whurra, there hadn't ought to be no sin or crime in this here world. Thurfur, be it:

Resolved, That there sint none.

A paper o' that kind would be mighty interestin' readin' and would bring children up in a healthy ignorance o' the world. All the persons would subscribe for it. I'd give the paper away for nothin' too, and make no charge fur advertisin'. Colonel, more hot Scotch."

Hoole vs. the Democratic Party.

S. F. Hoole, late editor of the deceased Record, to-day brought suit against the Democratic party of Washoe. The amount which he claims to be owing him for advertising and printing is $33.50. The defendants to this politico-financial suit are Mark Parish, Wm. Walker, J. B. Williams, N. C. Hasland, G. W. Avery, John S. Gilson, Chas. Knust, John Sunderland, J. L. Flint and Capt. Flaunagan. They claim that they have already paid the money now demanded by Mr. Hoole.

Ah Quong's Enterprise.

Ah Quong, a heathen of much enterprise, some time ago purchased from John Irvine a lot of hogs worth $30 and gave in payment a due bill which he said would be found to be as good as gold at a certain store in Chinatown. The draft upon presentation was dishonored and Ah Quong was to-day arrested upon a charge of swindling. His case will come up before Judge Bowker on the 18th. In the meantime the grand jury will probably have a huck at the Mengol.

MORRIS SCHWAB & Co., 19 and 21.

Post street, San Francisco. Oil Paintings, Water Colors, Engravings and Frames. Velox Frames of every description for cabinet pictures. These elegant goods are of the choicest description and are the latest productions of some of our most eminent artists. A free Art Gallery connected with the establishment contains the finest pictures in the city, and some of the finest in America. The latest productions of the best artists in the city go directly from the easel to this gallery. Visitors from Nevada are invited to inspect this fine collection. The display of Water Colors, fine Oil Paintings, Steel Engravings, Tapestries, etc., is very large and elegant. Artists' materials and every style of Frames to fill the largest order. Jan-1m

A CONUNDRUM.—"You are a mule, sir," said an irate man to his son. "And you are my father, sir," was the quick reply. "and it is no use to deny the relationship." The old gentleman attempted to assume a severe look, but a faint smile stole over his face, and to reward the wit of his son, went to S. N. Davidson's Jewelry Store and selected one of the finest Watches and Chains for him as a Christmas present. They both were made happy, as the son returned the compliment again. dec15f.

HARD THINGS TO DO.—There are three things that no man can keep—a point in a pencil, a pointed joke and an appointment with a dentist. There are three things no woman can do—cross before a horse, hurry for a horse car and pass S. N. Davidson's jewelry window without calling and examining some of his fine holiday presents on exhibition, which he offers for sale cheaper than ever. dec15f.

COMPETITION is said to be the life of trade. This may be so, but it opens a field to unscrupulous merchants to palm off spurious for the genuine article. This is not so at I. Fredrick's jewelry store, for, although his prices are lower than ever before, he will warrant everything sent out of his store as represented. dec15m.

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys fine furnishing goods. If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point for some people who assert that they sell cheap, do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I receive a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place. The Price of Corn.
(Burlington Hawkeye.)

"No," the honest farmer remarked, in tones of the deepest dejection, "the big crops don't do us a bit of good. What's the use? Corn only thirty cents. Everybody and everything dead agin the farmer. Why, by gum, it won't pay our taxes, let alone buy us clothes. It won't buy us enough salt to put up a barrel of pork. Corn only thirty cents! By jinks! it's a livin', cold-blooded swindle on the farmer, that's what it is. It ain't worth raisin corn for such a price as that. It's mean, low, robbery." Within the next ten days that man had sold so much more of his corn than he had intended, that he had to buy corn to feed through the winter with. The price nearly knocked him down. "What!" he yelled, "thirty cents for corn! Land alive—thirty cents! What are you givin' us! Why I don't want to buy your farm; I only want some corn! Thirty cents for corn! Why I believe there's nobody left in this world but a set of grasping, blood-suckin' old misers. Why, good land, you don't want to be able to buy a national bank with a crop of corn! Thirty cents for corn! Well, I'll let my cattle and horses run on cornstalks all winter before I'll pay any such unheeded, outrageous price for corn as that. Why, the country's flooded with corn, and thirty cents a bushel is a blame robbery. I don't see how any man, lookin' at the crop we've had, can have the face to ask such a price."

Maine's once promising industry ship-building, gives employment to a constantly decreasing number of persons, not half the work having been done in the season just closing that was done in the previous year. Indeed, only eleven ships were built in the state, and of the ninety-six vessels constructed, the average tonnage was only 435, or, taking out the ships, less than 300. The prospect is that less ship-building will be done in 1914 than in any other single year in the last thirty.

The Stock Exchange says: "A factitious contemporary says that a St. Louis belle who slipped on the banks of the Mississippi and submerged her feet, is said to have damped her river. That's nothing. A pious-looking old gentleman slipped on a piece of orange peel, opposite the Exchange office yesterday, and there was nothing in heaven or earth that he didn't damn."

James H. Quick, Treasurer of Pike county, Pennsylvania, is missing, as is also $10,000 of the county funds.

Found at Last!

AN INFALLIBLE Hair Restorative, which will restore the grayed hair to its natural color, remove dandruff, and prevent or stop the hair from falling out. It is cleansing and invigorating, making the hair healthy and glossy in all instances. It will reproduce a growth of substantial hair to the head, and the roots of the hair (however feeble) left. I warrant this hair restorative to be harmless, and to do all that is claimed for it. It is not a new article, but has been in the market since 1868. All those having this article for sale, and those who ever used it, pronounce it the best in the market. Examine carefully before buying, to avoid deception. Prepared and sold by HENRY FUCHS, No. 218 J Street, Sacramento. Also for sale by leading druggists throughout California and Nevada. Jan-6

MRS. H. A. MOORE'S SCIENTIFIC HAIR PRODUCER.

Mrs. H. A. Moore would announce to the ladies and gentlemen who desire the personal adornment of a fine suit of hair, that she has patented her celebrated Hair Restorative, which has now been before the public for a space of two years, and has in every instance given entire satisfaction as to what it promises. No mineral or damaging substance is used in this preparation, and it is guaranteed to prevent hair falling out after four applications. Well-known cases of long standing baldness have been successfully treated (as per testimonials in my possession). It will produce a full flowing crop of hair on all stages of baldness, even to its most pronounced state. It will prevent hair from turning gray. Preparations forwarded to all parts of the country. ONE BOTTLE, $5; THREE BOTTLES, $10. Address: MRS. H. A. MOORE, 108, STOCKTON STREET, BETWEEN O'FARRELL AND GRANT, SAN FRANCISCO.

Agents Wanted. The above article has been exhibited at all the recent fairs; receiving the premium and the unqualified approval of all who have given it a trial. Jan-6m
